B. Delegation of Authorized Responsibilities.

Under the Board's direction, guidance, and oversight, the GM/CEO may delegate the above authorized responsibilities as follows:

1. Except as otherwise limited by law, by the Cooperative's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, or by any other Director policy, the GM/CEO is authorized to delegate specific authorities or responsibilities to other Cooperative officers and personnel with the recognition that the GM/CEO remains at all times responsible and accountable for any and all actions taken under such sub-delegations;
2. The GM/CEO shall exercise due care in such delegations and regularly monitor the performance of the responsibility delegated; and
3. The GM/CEO shall inform the Board as to how any such delegations are being carried out.

VI. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE GM/CEO AND THE BOARD:

To ensure the success of the Cooperative, the Cooperative Board and management must work together with mutual respect and support. At the same time, the Board must maintain a governing role, which is to direct, guide, and oversee the Cooperative and to protect its interests and members.

A. Expectations of the GM/CEO in Working with the Board.

To fulfill the above expectations, the GM/CEO shall:

1. Develop, with the direction of the Board, an annual timeline of topics to be discussed and reports to be presented to the Board;
2. Assist the Officers in developing an agenda for each Board meeting;

3. Ensure that all appropriate financial, operational and other information and reports are provided to the Board in a timely and understandable fashion, so Directors are able to make informed decisions;
4. Report to the Board on conformity with approved policies, programs, plans, and budgets and recommend any appropriate revisions requiring Board approval;
5. Provide advice and counsel to the Board and ensure that important issues are timely presented and explained to the Board;

7. Seek the Board's advice and counsel whenever needed or desired.

A. Expectations of the Board in Working with the GM/CEO.

To fulfill the above expectations, the Board shall maintain the following principles and guidelines in its relationship with the GM/CEO:

1. Since good management is a key factor in the success of the Cooperative, the GM/CEO must be delegated sufficient authority to manage the operations of the Cooperative on a day-to-day basis. While specific authority may be described here, these powers are intended to be expansive in nature and substantial in depth. The GM/CEO is permitted and expected to make decisions that bind the Cooperative legally and that impact its on-going viability, consistent with the Board's policies, plans, budgets, and specific directives.
2. Mutual understanding and cooperation between management and the Board is needed for management to be effective. The GM/CEO is expected to produce results and give an account to the Board. The best results cannot be achieved unless the GM/CEO is given latitude to perform within the confines of board policy and budgeting. The Board is responsible for ensuring that the GM/CEO knows and understands its expectations and any limitations it has placed on his or her discretionary decision-making. These expectations and limitations are identified in this policy, which shall be used as the foundation for an annual appraisal of the GM/CEO's performance;
3. The Board is responsible for establishing clear goals regarding the GM/CEO's performance, for appraising the performance of the GM/CEO each year, for discussing the results of such appraisal with the GM/CEO, and for acting on any appropriate salary adjustment for the GM/CEO based on that appraisal;

4. Authority shall flow from the Board as a whole to the GM/CEO to the other Cooperative employees. The Board shall refrain from discussing management and personnel issues with personnel of the Cooperative, other than the GM/CEO. The Board, in consultation with the GM/CEO, may confer with appropriate personnel at regular or special meetings of the Board. Unless otherwise determined by the GM/CEO, Directors may confer with appropriate Cooperative employees regarding routine administrative matters; and
5. For any Director to undertake private conversations with others that might appear to make commitments for the Board or the Cooperative, unless directed officially by the Board, would be a serious breach of policy, and the Director may be subject to reprimand by the Board for such a breach.

VII. RESPONSIBILITY:

The Board shall be responsible for ensuring compliance with the portions of this policy that relate to the responsibilities and expectations of the Board and to Board oversight. The General Manager/CEO shall be responsible for ensuring compliance with the portions of this policy that relate to the responsibilities and expectations of the General Manager/CEO.

Conflicts of interest involving the outside activities of a Director are most likely to occur when the Director's outside activity, such as participation in a government or charitable organization, may have a potential effect on the Cooperative's interests.
